INTERNATIONAL SECURITY AFFAIRS

MEMORANDUM FOR: MR. JEFFERSON, ISA/Legal
LT COL SPILLER, DCSOPS
LT HULL, NAVY/JAG
MR. KAHMANN, STATE DEPT

SUBJECT: Annex J of Taiwan SOF Agreement

Attached is the long-awaited copy of Annex J to the Draft Military Agreement with a draft message containing comments on it. This is a piece of unfinished business left from our instructions on the Taiwan SOF and Military Agreement negotiations sent out last month.

Your early concurrence or comments would be appreciated.

ANNEX J

U.S. COMMUNICATIONS AND ELECTRONICS UNITS AGREEMENT

1. With regard to United States units deployed in and about Taiwan and the Pescadores, the Ministry of National Defense does hereby agree as follows:

a. Provide the necessary real estate to include but not limited to:

(1) A site for US communications units in the vicinity of and including the auxiliary air strip at Nan-Sun-Pu incorporating areas presently occupied by Detachment 1, 6923th Radio Squadron Mobile and the 327th Communications Reconnaissance Company.

(2) Direction Finder (D/F) sites at unspecified locations to be agreed upon at a future date to include one in the vicinity of Kang-Shan airbase.

(3) The areas presently occupied by the 9493rd technical unit, Signal Service Team.

b. With regard to the property set forth in a. above, the following rights will be accorded:

(1) Entry and exit rights to property.

(2) Water rights which will insure adequate supply and sanitation to include the digging of wells and lighting water towers.

(3) To establish right of way between separated areas for vehicles, communications lines, and to connect transmitting and receiving antenna fields and D/F operating locations to associated areas.

(4) To provide, operate, and maintain adequate power sources.

(5) To operate communications equipment on required frequencies at required powers and to insure reliable communications on and off Taiwan on a 24-hour per day basis.

(6) To establish a sewage disposal plant and dispose of the residual matters in a sanitary manner.

(7) The right to prohibit entry or passageway to all persons except authorized U.S. personnel.
